EXPERIENCE

Faber Mobili | 2018-2022

During my time as executive manager assistant, I handled various tasks ranging from project management, which involved communicating with suppliers and clients to meet deadlines, to marketing responsibilities such as developing the new company website and overseeing social media publications. Finally, I also took care of routine administrative duties like HR, invoicing, and shipping.

Decathlon Italia | 2016 - 2017

Activities primarily involved sales, customer assistance, inventory management, and restocking.
